Alex Stein is one of those sought-after artists whose compromise and production credentials designing unique techno-music sounds truly knows no bounds. The driving force behind this Berlin artist with Brazilian (São Paulo) roots resides in his capability to concoct an intoxicating, mesmeric, and mind-boggling blend of hard-hitting techno patterns not devoid of soul. Energy flows in all directions and is dusty with optimism.

Stein's strength and sonic personality as a producer are gaining traction with every new release. Following up his major debut on Terminal M with the acclaimed 'Rebirth EP' and after the success of the mighty 'Bonfire' EP on Reinier Zonneveld's Filth On Acid imprint, Stein set a milestone trilogy. Completing 'Rebirth' with two highly spun EPs, 'Headrush' and 'The Phoenix' both on the German label Terminal M, plus a collab EP along his friend Transcode to offer his ultimate EP to date, 'Control Me', also on Monika Kruse's label. Not to mention notable remixes like the ones made for Dusty Kid or A*S*Y*S.

When Alex isn't in his Berlin studio cross-pollinating the diverse forms of techno, he's relentlessly traveling around the entire globe to perform at some of the world's best festivals and venues. As a DJ, he has exceptional skill in reading the crowd. His electrifying stage presence and high-energy sets have earned Alex a loyal international fanbase that follows him from Luft Festival in Melbourne to Street Parade in Zurich, Love Parade in Berlin to be part of several Drumcode label showcases.
